The Heritage House is set in a beautiful acre of land on the North Coast of Cayman Brac that extends from the roadside to the majestic Bluff. The grounds are spacious and landscaped with local flora. An ‘old-time well’ and Tannery adds historical and cultural value which are described by narrative information panels. Cola Cave, is hidden against the bluff and was the shelter for the former owners of the estate during past hurricanes. The house has become the premiere location to host various cultural and social events.

The building’s structure is a modern version of an old Caymanian House inclusive of a wrap around verandah and offers an intimate setting for any function. A full kitchen, separate male and female bathrooms, small office and a conference area with the capacity for approximately 40 people.

Scheduled displays take place everyday showcasing the talents of local artists. Past displays have included Caymanian traditions of Thatch plaiting, crochet, island photography and various historical artifacts.

The Heritage House and its grounds are available for use for various functions based on availability.

Stop by anytime and let our Assistant Programme Coordinator share the beauty of the building and the surrounding grounds.
